

System Check Status Page:

The screenshot shows the Joomla! System Check page. The navigation menu includes Control Panel, Configuration, Users, Mappings, Profile Types, Course requests, Shop, and System Check. The System Check table lists several checks, all of which have a green checkmark in the Status column and no errors in the Error column.

Just registered a new user with my Joomla site and at this point according to Joomla! it has recognized that I only have a Joomla account:

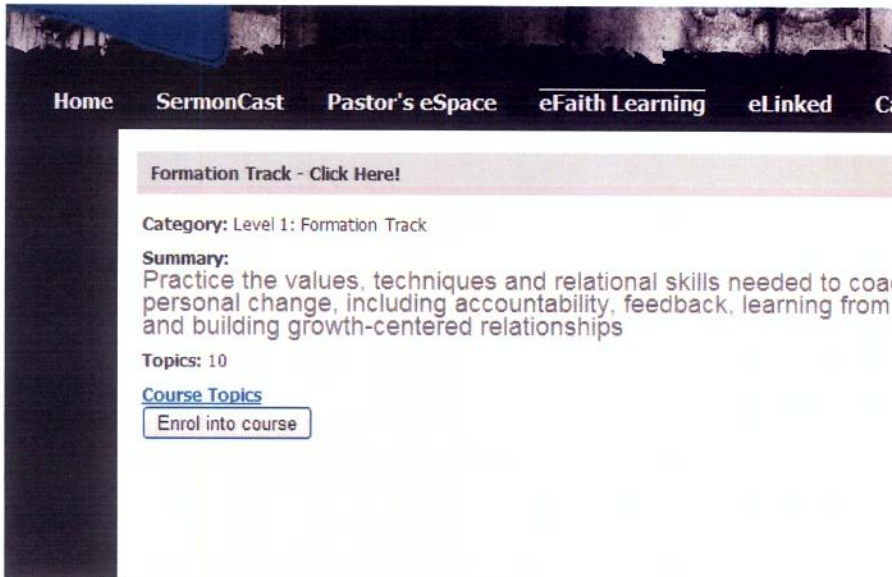

The screenshot shows the Joomla! Users list page. The table lists users with columns for ID, Username, Name, E-mail, Joomla Account, Moodle Account, and Joomla User. A filter is applied to show only Joomla Users. The user 'tbinkley' is highlighted in yellow.

ID	Username	Name	E-mail	Joomla Account	Moodle Account	Joomla User

Below is my Moodle page in my Joomla Wrapper – before I click on the “Enrol into course” button:

The screenshot shows a Moodle course page within a Joomla wrapper. The navigation menu includes Home, SermonCast, Pastor's eSpace, eFaith Learning, eLinked, and Ca. The course title is "Formation Track - Click Here!". The category is "Level 1: Formation Track". The summary is "Practice the values, techniques and relational skills needed to coac personal change, including accountability, feedback, learning from and building growth-centered relationships". The topics are 10. There is a "Course Topics" link and an "Enrol into course" button.

Enrol into course

This is what happens after I click the “Enrol into course” - I get this page! - So I click the Back Button on my Browser to get back to the previous page where I had the “Enrol into course”

Now If I check my users under Joomla – it shows me this and as you can see Joomla has now added me as a published user under Moodle and Joomla

ID	Username	Name	E-mail	Joomla Account	Moodle Account	Joomla User
62	admin	Administrator	support@efaitlearning.com	✓	✓
-1	guest	Guest User	root@localhost		✓

Admin User	tbinkley@efaitlearning.com	Lima	United States	5 secs	Edit
Todd	tbinkley@efaitlearning.com			4 mins	Edit De

Add a new user

And it shows me as being a registered student to the course that I enrolled into under moodle:

Roles	Description	Users
Administrator	Administrators can usually do anything on the site, in all courses.	1	Admin User
Course creator	Course creators can create new courses.	0
Teacher	Teachers can do anything within a course, including changing the activities and grading students.	0
Non-editing teacher	Non-editing teachers can teach in courses and grade students, but may not alter activities.	0
Student	Students generally have fewer privileges within a course.	2	Todd Admin User
Guest		0

This is after I hit the back button on my Browser from the image above - I hit the "Refresh Button" on my browser on my Joomla site and my Joomla/Moodle Page updates and the button now says "Go to Course"

I click on "Go to course" and now my Joomla/Moodle page shows my entire Moodle site inside the wrapper and is forcing me fill in the remaining Moodle profile requirements – and now every time I click on "Go to Course" under Joomla on my Joomla page – it always brings me back to this point – It NEVER takes me directly to the course unless I browse to the course by click on the Home Button on my Moodle site inside the wrapper and then the course!
